

How Does The Citation Policy Work?

A REALTOR® or a member of the General Public would file a complaint against a member of the GPBOR.

If the Grievance Committee determines the Article(s) in the complaint is/are eligible for the Citation Policy, the Respondent will be notified and given 10 calendar days to elect to participate in the Citation Policy Program or request an Ethics Hearing.

If the Respondent opts to utilize the Citation Policy, they/them would pay a pre-set fine associated with the article(s) violated and complete the online NAR REALTOR® Code of Ethics class. If the Respondent does not utilize the Citation Policy, then both parties must attend an Ethics Hearing at our office.

We do not accept anonymous complaints.

Citation Policy FOR CODE OF ETHICS VIOLATIONS

Professional Standards and Grievance Committees are charged with upholding the highest principles of the Greater Providence Board of REALTORS® by ensuring our members adhere to the REALTOR® Code of Ethics.

Over the years, members have sought ways to avoid the time-consuming process of Ethics Complaint filings and hearings. In response, our Association adopted the Citation Policy endorsed by the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) in 2021.

In an ongoing effort to increase professionalism in the marketplace for our membership, the Citation Policy provides mechanisms to streamline the Ethics Hearing Process, and protect the interests of the General Public.

Why Should A Respondent Elect To Use The “CITATION POLICY”?

For “Respondents”, electing the Citation Policy avoids an often time consuming and uncomfortable Hearing Process. Due Process rights are still protected since Respondents may elect to NOT proceed with a full hearing, and instead use the Citation Policy. This Policy conforms to the same rules of confidentiality as the Ethics Hearing Process.

“Complainant(s)”, assuming the complaint is eligible for the Citation Policy, there may be less time involved yet justice will be served, thereby protecting the industry from unethical behaviors. However, if the Respondent elects to have an Ethics Hearing in lieu of paying the Citation Fine and completing the REALTOR® Code of Ethics class, there will be an Ethics Hearing, which both parties are required to attend.

Are All Ethics Complaints Eligible For A Citation ?

NO. The Citation Policy is limited to certain aspects of the Articles listed in this brochure. The charges must also be substantiated with written or other documented evidence. For example: “A photograph of a sign that violates Article 12 of the Code of Ethics.”
